

East London Advertiser

18 June 2009

Circ: 6,783

Customer Judith Hawley with designer Beate Kubitz

Fashion for eco chicks

FASHIONISTAS were dazzled by ethical clothing and accessories at an "eco-chic" event in Bethnal Green's famous Columbia Road on Sunday.

As green-fingered East Enders browsed the street's flower market, green-minded fashion lovers perused ethical clothes, shoes and accessories at jewellery shop Cerise.

Ethical fashion label Makepiece and renowned eco-stylist Lupe Castro from Ethical Heaven showed their sustainable fashion style credentials for an afternoon of "clothing with a conscience".

Beate Kubitz from ethical knitwear brand Makepiece talked to customers about fashion, style and her very own sheep while Lupe Castro was on hand to give tips on ethical styling and make-up. Shoe designer Hetty Rose also presented her latest shoe and accessories collection.